

Library PressDisplay is a stand-alone web-based portal designed specifically to meet the needs of libraries and educational institutions. Library PressDisplay has become the media destination of choice in more than 7,000 libraries and educational institutions around the world providing full digital replicas of current-edition newspapers and magazines to students, teachers and researchers.

The screenshot shows the Library PressDisplay homepage. At the top, there's a banner for 'INSTANT ACCESS' to 2200+ newspapers from 97 countries in 54 languages. Below this is a row of newspaper thumbnails including 'The Standard', 'The Manila Times', 'The Recorder & Times', 'SAM'S HEARTACHE', 'Gazette', 'Today's Zama', 'Cairns Post', and 'Daily Telegraph'. A navigation bar below the thumbnails lists various news topics like 'The flu and Happy New Year's', '€280k of cocaine seized at airport', etc. The main content area is divided into several sections: a left sidebar with 'LIBRARY PRESSDISPLAY DEMO' and a list of countries; a central news feed with articles like 'Lance on the boil', 'Pop quiz stumps university students', and 'Strasbourg ruling defends right to wear a cross'; a right sidebar with 'THE WORLD IN PICTURES' featuring a football player, and '411780 TREES SAVED'. At the bottom, there are sections for 'TOP NEWSPAPERS' and 'TOP REPORTERS'. Numbered callouts (1-15) point to specific features: 1. Demo link, 2. News date selector, 3. Search bar, 4. Country/language selector, 5. RSS feed, 6. Help link, 7. Top story picks, 8. Librarian's picks, 9. Language preferences, 10. Recommended publications, 11. News categories, 12. Country titles, 13.
